Officer's Commendation: The Dahlongega Police Department has recently received several expressions of gratitude from members of our community, reflecting the professionalism and compassion consistently demonstrated by our officers.

Officers Weathington and Mundy were publicly recognized in the editorial section of The Dahlongega Nugget. A citizen authored a heartfelt article thanking both officers for their kindness and assistance after the individual ran out of fuel. Their willingness to go above and beyond in a moment of need exemplifies the department's commitment to service.

Officers Bauman and Sprague were the subject of a commendatory phone call received by the department. The caller specifically noted the officers' professionalism, patience, and compassion while assisting an elderly resident during a recent call for service. Their conduct brought comfort and reassurance to a vulnerable member of our community.

The department also received a formal letter from St. Peter's Lutheran Church acknowledging and appreciating the continued service and support provided by our team. The church expressed gratitude for the department's dedication to the safety and well-being of the community.

These commendations reflect the dedication, empathy, and professionalism our officers bring to their work each day. The department extends sincere appreciation to each of these officers for representing the City of Dahlongega with integrity and exemplary service.

Appreciate helpfulness of local officers when I had car troubles

Dear Editor:

I just wanted to thank Officer Nick Weathington and Officer Van Mundy for coming to my aid on Wednesday when my car ran out of gas, right in the middle of the road near the college.

I was not really sure who I should call so I decided to call the City of Dahlgonega Police station. They came out to me within five minutes and brought me gasoline.

My car started right up, and I drove immediately to the gas station and filled my tank.

I've driven on fumes many times, but this has taught me a lesson.

The two officers were very pleasant and helpful to someone in need. I will say during all of this, over 12 cars passed me by without even offering any help.

There was one man that pushed me out of the way of all the traffic that I was backing up, I don't know his name, but I just want him to know that I appreciated his help, too. Thank you again.
